2020 Abundant Faith Worship Center Strategic Plan

The purpose of this document is to cast vision for Abundant Faith Worship Center and invite its members (including all levels of leadership and corporate expression) into the process of discerning God's direction for this global movement over the next decade.

This will be an ongoing process involving all levels of leadership. The next 5 years will be spent monitoring and evaluating the planning activities and status of the implementation of this plan. We will do this to ensure that we are following God's direction and reflect that in strategic planning. We will learn by continuing to monitor and evaluate the planning activities and the status of the implementation of the plan. Plans are guidelines. They aren't rules. As a fresh Word from God is received, discerned by a multitude of counselors, this plan will be revised to reflect the new vision.

ASTUTE, POWERFUL, PROLIFIC, DOMINANT are a few words that the world uses to describe Amere May Sr., but the words that he most wants to be known by are husband, father, son, brother, and friend.

Bishop May is a true end-time preacher, who is a highly sought-after prophet of God sent into regions and nations to affect a paradigm shift in the spirit and minds of the people of God. His charismatic style and gentle size have captivated many of his audiences and his life experiences have nurtured his unique call to the ministry of reconciliation. He has been commissioned globally to body of Christ.

- Amere J. May Sr. -

“When you are born, you look like your parents, but when you die, you will look like your decisions...”

Amere J. May Sr. was born the eldest son of Walter Simpson and Christine Cunningham-Simpson. Taller and more athletic than most, Amere got hooked on basketball early in childhood. Being raised in South Haven, MI, his passion for the sport led him to garner national attention as one of the top high school basketball players in the country. After graduating high school, he accepted an athletic scholarship to Central Michigan and Shaw University where he continued to pursue his love of basketball. This led him to be able to participate in the 1997 NBA draft and later play overseas in the countries of Israel and Argentina. It was during this season that he realized that God had another calling on his life, one that would impact an entire nation. Bishop May returned home, acknowledged and accepted his call to the ministry, under the tutelage of his grandfather, the late Bishop Fred. L. Cunningham. During this time, he united in holy matrimony to his childhood sweetheart, Kenya L. May of Chicago, Illinois. In September 2020, they will celebrate 25 years of marriage. Bishop May is the proud father of four children: Amere Jr., Teaya, Armani, and Precious, as well as the grandfather of seven grandchildren.
